Your support is vital

South Wales Baptist College is an independently funded College, and receive no statutory support

To enable us to provide the level of training and ministerial formation that we do, the College relies on gifts from private individuals, churches and grant making bodies.

Regular support makes a huge difference to our work.

By completing the Bank Standing Order (below) and becoming a regular supporter, you will be helping to ensure the future of your College. Please return the completed form to us here at the College.

The College is also pleased to accept funding from legacies and trust funds. If this is an option you would like to consider, please contact the Resource Manager.

Please give prayerful consideration to whether you wish to become a regular supporter.
